

She loves getting the most out of life, from amazing sales to great vacations, the latest fashions and delicious meals, but most of all she loves saving time, to spend time with the ones she loves. That's why SHE loves Screamin Sicilian, a pizza kids and adults both crave without the expense or time commitment of making it from scratch. But if you did make it from scratch, you'd make it like this...with premium toppings like strips of bacon, fire roasted veggies, mini meatballs, large fresh slices of pepperoni and mozzarella you can see... and the perfect crust! Not too thick and not too thin! Now that's AMAZING! That's Screamin' Sicilian! Check out the Scream Team loyalty club at Screamin Sicilian dot com for breaking pizza news and special offers or at HASHTAG Screamin Sicilian. And, look for Screamin Sicilian at your favorite grocery store in the cool box with the big mouth and the punch out moustache to help you show your Italian spirit! She loves pizza. Especially Screamin Sicilian!
